

The UCLA Charles E. Young Research Library
Department of Special Collections and the UCLA Department of English present

HOW SHALL A GENERATION KNOW ITS STORY

The Edgar Bowers Conference & Exhibition

Friday, April 11
9 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.
Royce Hall 314 and the YRL
Department of Special Collections

CONFERENCE PARTICIPANTS

*Christopher Baswell
Barbara Bundy
Turner Cassity
Dick Davis
Suzanne Doyle
Kevin Durkin
Kenneth Fields
Gordon Harvey
Joshua Mebigan
Robert Mezey
Leslie Monsour
Joshua Odell
Douglas L. Peterson
David Sanders
Steven Shankman
Robert B. Shaw
Kevin Smith
Timothy Steele
Helen Pinkerton Trimpi
Wesley Trimpi
Thomas Wortham
Stephen Yenser
David Yezzi*

The late poet Edgar Bowers garnered many honors during his lifetime, including the Bollingen Prize, which placed him in the rarefied company of W.H. Auden, Robert Frost, Marianne Moore, and Wallace Stevens. Held in conjunction with National Poetry Month, this conference and exhibition celebrate his remarkable career.

Full conference details and an online exhibition are available at <<http://www.library.ucla.edu/libraries/special/scweb/bowers.htm>>.

To make reservations, please call 310/794-4408 or email <speccoll@library.ucla.edu>.

For suggestions of places to stay, visit <<http://www.library.ucla.edu/libraries/special/scweb/hotels.htm>>.